

Secret game – Ania Karwan

Baby it's not a crime
Losing your comfort line
To start a perfect game
It's not a check and mate
It's rather love and hate
To laid in my bed
I know you want it all
I know it's OK
Come in take a chance
Oh baby take your chance tonight
Oh honey, take your side right now
Cause it's getting so high
Tell me your sweetest lies
In that secret game
You have your secret life
Under the sweetest lies
My love gasps, oh king
Finding your perfect file
Please baby keep in mind
That I am still your queen
I know your tricky games
I know you so good
Come in and make your move
Oh baby, make your move tonight
Oh honey, take your side right now
Cause it's getting so high
Tell me your sweets lies
In that secret game
You can't run away forever
It's not a way that should be known
Oh baby, take your only chance
With this love in us
Kiss is not a crime
So dance me tonight
And dare in my house
I need your only chance

Cause it's getting so high
Tell me your sweetest lies
In that secret game
Cause it's getting so high
Tell me your sweetest lies
In that secret game
Cause it's getting so high
In that secret game
